Guru Nanak Sacred Forest

The College had initiated a novel idea of creating a mini forest on-campus in April 2019 with an objective to promote a sustainable environment. This habitation has now flourished into a natural air-purifying dense forest with 550 trees comprising 37 different native species of the region planted in an area of 180 square metres. It will help in creating 30 times more oxygen than regular plantation and it is developing into a hub of natural biodiversity. It is a major step in reducing the Carbon Footprint of the region. This is a significant contribution towards the Biodiversity Target 2020 of the Government of India NBT (National Biodiversity) Project which stresses on the need to spread awareness among youth to play a positive role for the restoration, conservation and sustainable use of the vulnerable ecosystem.

The creation of the Sacred Forest in the College will be of great significance towards documentation and preservation of genetic heritage. It will involve a study and documentation of traditional ways of collecting and storing seeds of native species. We need to study how tiny forest spaces can act as safe refuges for insects, birds and other fauna that are gradually disappearing from the ecosystem. It will contribute towards the Environment related policies of the Government by mobilising people with foresight from academia, youth, government and private agencies.

Various observations and studies are underway on growth of the forest under different conditions characterised as follows:

- Plants have been grouped into different layers – shrub, sub tree, tree and canopy – in each sq. m. Such a multi-layered dense green forest will

- be maintenance free gradually
- 100% organic, zero pesticides
- Natural biodiversity habitat for pollinators
- More CO2 absorption and sequestration
- SPM reduction and ground water recharge
- Soil conservation
- Regeneration of ecosystem

On Aug 17, 2020, a 3-member team from Punjab Biodiversity Board and Punjab State Council of Science & Technology visited Guru Nanak Sacred Forest for advice on further development and research related to various native species of trees. S Satnam Singh Ladhar and Dr Gurharminder Singh, Principal Scientific Officer, Directorate of Environment and Climate Change and Punjab Biodiversity Board and Dr Sangeeta Sarangal, Scientist, Punjab Biodiversity Board comprised the expert team. Aśva Mehalas 9 ||
 There is a garden that has to many plants flourishing within it.
 And each bears the sweet-nectared Neom as its fruit.
 Consider this, O wise one, in this garden you may seek the means by which to attain eternal bliss.
 O brothers and sisters of Destiny,
 This garden has dark pools of poison here and there,
 But it also contains the ambrosial nectar within it.
 There is only one Gardener who tends it.
 He takes care of every leaf and branch.
 He brought all these plants and planted them there.
 They all bear fruits - none is without fruit.
 The one who receives the ambrosial fruit of Neom from the Guru - O Nanak,
 Only such a Guru's servant finds the way to cross the worldly ocean of illusion.

and Technology was gifted to the Guru Sacred Forest Committee for reference and research.

To further the idea of 'Environmental Sustainability' and 'Heritage Preservation', on Aug 21, 2020, Desi Beriyan (ziziphus sp) were planted along the boundary of Guru Nanak Sacred Forest in order to attract birds. 150 Beri saplings were gifted by Beerh Mallan Society, Sri Muktsar Sahib, Punjab. Sardar Kahan Singh Pannu, IAS, Secretary, Department of Agriculture and Climate Change, Government of Punjab cum Director Mission Tandrust, Punjab was the Chief Guest on this occasion. He is Punjab's crusading IAS officer who has always been on the forefront to tackle environment related issues and find viable solutions. He lauded the sincere efforts of the College to contribute towards re-establishing cultural-ecological loss. The planting of 'desi beris' is an appreciable outreach Programme of the College that aims to spread awareness among the youth regarding the importance of dwindling Native species peculiar to their region, their cultural, heritage, traditional and religious significance which was ignored in the race for modernisation. The severe consequence of this neglect has led to global suffering today. He further appreciated that this College is the only educational Institute of the region to have initiated a novel idea of creating a micro forest on-campus in an area of 180 sq. yards with an objective to promote sustainable environment.

The Beerh Mallan Society, Sri Muktsar Sahib, instrumental in promotion and propagation of indigenous species, gifted 150 saplings of 'desi beriyan' to the College Principal S Charanjit Singh. Ms Pummy Sidhu, a renowned creative artist and former Archivist, Department of Archives, Punjab represented the Mallan Society. The saplings were gifted to various other Educational Institutes by the Principal and Organising team as part of the Community Outreach Programme of the College. These include Guru Gobind Singh College for Women, Chandigarh; Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Pharmacy, Chandigarh; Sri Guru Gobind Singh Collegiate Public School, Chandigarh; Sikh National College, Banga, Punjab and Panjab University, Chandigarh. Saplings were also gifted to Municipal Corporation, Chandigarh. Members of Sikh Educational Society, Faculty members and students of the College received some 'beri' saplings.

This occasion was dedicated to the 400th Birth Anniversary of Sri Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji. The Sikh tradition of 'Seva', service to community, is the prime motivator for ecological activism and is the basis for many of the successful efforts of Sri Guru Gobind

Plantation of Desi Beriyan

Singh College. A Heritage Wall with quotes related to ecology from Gurbaani was created in the Guru Nanak Sacred Forest.

On September 25, 2020, the Coordinators of Guru Nanak Sacred Forest, Dr Amandeep Kaur and Dr Navjot Kaur, were invited by S Damanbir Singh Jaspal, Senior IAS Officer of Punjab, former Head of Department of Forests, Punjab, an eminent scholar and academician, to visit the Museum of Trees established by him in Chandigarh. It is a unique project that seeks to promote environmental “Action through Awareness and Education”. He has identified various Sikh shrines named after species of trees; a fact singularly unique to Sikh religion. He gifted his book Tryst with Trees: Punjab’s Sacred Heritage for Guru Nanak Sacred Forest collection.

Our faculty members are involved in writing and presenting related Research Papers/ Projects:

- ‘Ecological Restoration through Mini Urban Forests created Native Species of Trees’ presented by Dr Navjot Kaur, Associate Professor, PG Deptt of English at National Conference on Environment, Human Health and Sustainable Development and World Environment Day 2020 organised by ESDA Delhi, Jun 5-6, 2020.

- Major Research Project under UGC–STRIDE COMPONENT-2 Scheme titled ‘Biodiversity Conservation and Gradual Regeneration of Ecosystem through Cultivation of Native trees and Evaluating the Effectiveness of Native Species Reforestation for Carbon Sequestration’ has been submitted by Dr Navjot Kaur (PG Deptt of English), Dr Inderpal Pasricha (PG Deptt of Chemistry), Dr Hardeep Kaur (Deptt of History).

The Sacred Forest amalgamates the aspects of ecosystem diversity, curative diversity (a wide variety of medicinal plants) and cultural diversity (including spiritual values) very successfully.

The College is collaborating with the following Government offices for assistance in further development and expansion of the Forest at various stages since it is of a trans-disciplinary nature. Punjab Biodiversity Board (PBB), ENVIS Centre, Department of Environment Punjab State Council for Science & Technology, CREST Chandigarh Renewal Energy Science & Technology Promotion Society, Forest & Wildlife Preservation Department, Department of Soil & Water Conservation.

Dr Amandeep Kaur (Deptt of History) and Dr Navjot Kaur (PG Deptt of English) are the Coordinators of Guru Nanak Sacred Forest.
