SECTOR 26, CHANDIGARH

NAAC RE-ACCREDITED GRADE 'A'

A POSTGRADUATE CO-EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE AFFILIATED TO PANJAB UNIVERSITY, CHANDIGARH
(An Institution of the Sikh Educational Society)

Aims & Scope

Falcon: Journal of Multidisciplinary Research is a double-blind peer-reviewed, open-access online journal committed to advancing knowledge across a wide spectrum of academic disciplines. The journal serves as a vital platform for researchers, academicians, and professionals to disseminate their scholarly work and findings. It embraces a diverse range of subjects, including but not limited to science and technology, commerce and business, arts and humanities, and social sciences. By promoting interdisciplinary dialogue and collaboration, Falcon encourages the integration of ideas and methodologies from various domains, ultimately fostering a holistic understanding of complex issues.

The publication seeks to showcase both empirical and conceptual research, aiming to bridge the gap between theory and practice. By facilitating the exploration of contemporary issues, innovative solutions, and novel perspectives, Falcon aims to contribute to the theoretical foundation and practical applications of multidisciplinary research. Through its rigorous review process, the journal ensures the quality and credibility of the research it publishes, upholding scholarly integrity and enriching the academic community.
