

Falcon: Journal of Multidisciplinary Research

Journal Policies

Online Publication

Falcon: Journal of Multidisciplinary Research is an Online Journal.

Publication Frequency

Falcon: Journal of Multidisciplinary Research is published bi-annually (June and December).

Peer Review Process

Falcon: Journal of Multidisciplinary Research abides by a double-blind peer review process. The first review usually takes 2-3 weeks. If revision is necessary, the author is asked to resubmit the revised manuscript within the given timeframe. The Editor reserves the right to reject a manuscript without peer review if the manuscript does not comply with the Journal's policies and guidelines. All submissions are subject to final approval and acceptance for publication by the Editor.

Plagiarism Policy

Every paper submitted to journal is checked for Plagiarism. Papers having more than 10% similarity are not accepted for publication (Original or Turnitin).